Says He Can't Tell Where State's Cash is Nor Explain Discrepancies

AFFAIRS STILL MUDDLED

Columbus, March 12.—Cashier C. C. Green of State Treasurer McKinnon's office testified Thursday that he had no explanation to offer for the discrepancies which appear between the figures of the expert accountants taken from the bank slips and correspondence on file in the office, and the cash book.

Referring to one item of $363, interest paid in by the Farmers' National bank of Ashtabula, Green said: "I have no record on any book, but there is no record on any book, but there is no record on any book."

"Have you since yesterday looked up this matter so you can explain it to the committee?"

"I have not," answered Green.

"Have you no explanation to offer why this does not appear on the books?" inquired Howe.

"No, I think not," the cashier replied.

"Are there no means of determining whether this item was ever entered on the cash book or accounted for? Is there nothing in the office to determine this?"

"We have no record unless it is the correspondence. We turn these items in as cash and make out no deposit slip."

Another attempt was made to get Green to tell what bank he had stock in, but it proved no more successful than that of Tuesday, when following McKinnon's example, he refused to answer the questions of the senate committee.

"Are you the owner of 50 shares of stock in the Marine National bank of Ashtabula?" Howe suddenly asked.

"Now, senator, we went into that yesterday," said Green.

Asked by Howe if he did not think the people of the state had a right to know what banks he had stock in, Green made no answer.

A sweeping inquiry into many state offices is to be made by the special senate committee named originally to investigate only the office of McKinnon.

Auditor Guilbert will also be asked to explain why the state treasurer has not been compelled to file a detailed verified statement each week as to the interest he has received, the law requiring every state officer to file such a report with the auditor.

This, however, is but the beginning of the examination to be made by the committee. It is the purpose to inquire into all the transactions of the state boards having charge of the remission of taxes and the assessment of railways, banks, interurban companies, express, telegraph and telephone corporations.

COURT NEWS

COMMON PLEAS COURT — NEW CASES.

18905—Clarence E. Doll vs. Harry G. Bockius.

18906—Margaret Reich vs. John Henry et al. Ake and Day, attorneys.

Clarence E. Doll has filed suit for the collection of $1060.75 from Harry G. Bockius, claiming that he had obtained a judgment against the defendant for this amount in the city court of New York but that no part of the sum has been paid. Attached to the petition is a copy of the order of the New York court.

Margaret Reich, through her attorneys Ake and Day, has filed suit for the partition of the realty left by Jacob Henry, her former husband, who died in September, 1906. The land lays in Plain township and consists of seven tracts. The plaintiff alleges that the estate is entitled to an undivided one-half interest in 76 19-20 acres, this land being in three parcels, and to an undivided one-fifth interest in 92 3-20 acres, this land being in four parcels, all in Plain township.

The plaintiff alleges that under the will of Jacob Henry she was left the entire estate and a clause stipulated that in case she married again the property was to pass to a niece. Another clause provided that she could take her legal interest in the property and marry again if she so chose and it is claimed that this was what the plaintiff did. The suit is filed against John Henry and others.

The case of Henry Talbot against the Canton Boiler and Engineering company, in which the plaintiff asked for damages in the sum of $10,000, has been withdrawn. Yesterday Judge Harter instructed the jury to return a verdict for the defendant and the plaintiff's attorneys asked for leave to amend their petition. The jury was withdrawn and the matter was argued with the result that the court granted the plaintiff's attorneys the privilege of so doing. Attorneys Pomeroy and Jeffers represented the defendants, while Judge August and Attorney Robert Day had the case for the plaintiff.

MISSING FARMER BELIEVED KILLED BY HIGHWAYMEN

Belleville, O., March 12.—Relatives and neighbors think Jacob Darver, 35, farmer, mysteriously missing, was killed by robbers and cast into Lenart mill race, which feeds from Clear Fork creek.

Searching parties after scouring woods and fields for two days, found Darver's billhook on the bank of the race. It contained no money although it had been filled with bills when Darver's wife last saw him.

Mrs. Darver says there had been no domestic trouble. She is convinced her husband was murdered.

Dragging of the race was begun Thursday afternoon.

Canton Travelers Expected Home. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lowenstein, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Crane and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kenny are expected home from Florida this evening. The party has enjoyed an extended trip through the land of flowers and stopped at many points of interest, visiting the Canton colony at Northern during the itinerary.

WILD MAN RUN DOWN AT LISBON

Lisbon, March 12.—At several rear doors of residence here there yesterday appeared a man who for a time was thought to be a genuine wild man. He was all but naked, his clothes consisting of merely a pair of ragged short trousers, a shirt and old ragged vest. He was without a hat and his hair was long and hung down over his face. He applied for food and succeeded in frightening many women, one of whom telephoned the police but when the officer arrived the strange creature had gone. Later he was found and taken into custody after which he was locked in the city jail where he is now. The man who declares he has no name and never had one says he is tramping from Columbus to New York. He says he arrived here from Columbus yesterday and being hungry decided to seek food. He is aged about 60 years and both arms and both legs are heavily tattooed for their entire length.

CITY BRIDGES IN BAD REPAIR

The members of the board of public service made a tour of inspection yesterday of the bridges in the city. They found that all but two of the bridges inspected were badly in need of repairs and some of them will have to be closed until temporary repairs can be made. City Engineer Starret accompanied the board and he has made a report of the repairs deemed necessary and council will be asked at the next meeting to appropriate funds with which to carry on the work.

The estimated cost of the repairs is about $3300. The Hurford street bridge is now being propped up and is closed for traffic. It is estimated that it will cost $600 or $700 to put it in shape. The Klorer avenue bridge is said to need a new wall on one side to protect the bank. One wing of the wall of the East Fourth street bridge will have to be rebuilt at a probable cost of $500. A wall is planned for the East Tuscarawas street bridge at a cost of $1050. One wing of the Jackson street bridge wall was found to be washed out and a new one is planned at a cost of $800. The East Ninth street bridge needs repainting and all of the structures need painting.

STARVING OHIOAN SAVED BY SQUAW

Youngstown, March 12.—After having been given up for dead, George Moore has written relatives that he is safe in Stockton, Cal.

For a year he has been prospecting for gold. He became lost in the mountains and wandered for five days without food. An Indian squaw, looking for a stray horse, found him almost dead. She took him to her cabin.

For four months it was thought he would not live, but he finally recovered and got back to civilization.

Wife at Funeral; Husband Dies. Bellefontaine, O., March 12.—While Mrs. Emma Lamb of Chicago was here in attendance at the funeral of her father, George Secret, who died at the age of 93, she received a message announcing the death of her husband, Dr. Lamb, in Chicago.

SOCIALISTS AGAINST A LABOR PARTY

Cleveland, March 12.—Leaders in the movement for a labor party in Cleveland are being asked in a quiet way by the Socialists to desist in their efforts to continue the new party boom.

"Both parties are fighting for almost the same end, but the difference is in the name," said one of the new party leaders.

"About 75 per cent of the union workers in this city are Socialists so far as principles are concerned, but a very small percentage vote that ticket."

"Our new party would get the vote of all this number."

American Bankers Meet in May. New York, March 12.—The annual meeting of the American bankers association will be held at Lakewood, N. J., May 4.

BLACK HAND THREATENS MINISTER

Mt. Vernon, O., March 12.—Rev. L. W. Mulhane, rector of St. Vincent de Paul's Catholic church, Thursday morning received the following letter, signed "Black Hand":

"You are the next victim. The arm of the Black Hand is long, and you will be the next one to feel its power. You have been giving lectures of late against us, for which you are doomed to die."

Father Mulhane is not alarmed and will proceed to conduct the usual services in his church. He is widely known in Ohio as a lecturer.

Last Sunday the priest delivered a lecture in his church on "Anarchy vs. Law." It was at this address that Black Handers are believed particularly to have taken offense.

No false pretense has marked the career of Ely's Cream Balm. Being entirely harmless, it is not responsible like the catarrh snuffs and powders, for minds shattered by cocaine. The great virtue of Ely's Cream Balm is that it speedsily and completely overcomes nasal catarrh and hay fever.
